

MAKING IT EASY TO SHARE MIDWEST MAGIC

THE NEW TERRITORY dismantles the notion that Midwest is “flyover country.” As a magazine built by narrative journalists, creative artists and optimistic thinkers of America’s heartland, we’re the voice of a region ready for its own identity.

We offer discounts on subscriptions, bulk purchases of back issues or pre-orders for conferences, classroom use and other events.

You can support our mission to connect the region’s great writers, readers, thinkers and doers by offering subscriptions to the people most important your business or organization.
